DETAILED ACTION

I. Rejection of claims 1,3,4,7,8,10-13,15,18,21 and 23 under 35 USC 103(a) as being obvious over Voss will be maintained in light of amendment filed 1/26/04 for reasons on record and reason as follows. Applicant arguments center around the definition of a solvent. Applicant argues that the amine oxide is not an organic solvent and therefore the rejection should be withdrawn. Examiner disagrees with Applicant. Examiner argues particularly in a claim to a composition a statement regarding the purpose or function of a chemical component is not patentable. The fact is that Voss discloses an amine oxide; and since Voss' amine oxide is organic in nature, Examiner concludes that the organic amine oxide is the organic solvent. In a claim to a composition it is irrelevant as to whether the organic component is claimed as a solvent or something other than a solvent.

II. Rejection of claims 1,3,4,8-12,15,16,19,21-25 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Kraskin will not be maintained. Applicant is correct in that Kraskin's quaternized amine does not have a N – C1-C10 hydrocarbyl terminal group.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

III. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The phrase "other liquid components" in claim 14 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The phrase "other liquid components" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. What is meant by the phrase?

IV. Claims 5,6,9,16,17,19,20,22,24-27 are objected to for reasons on record.
